

Riders honor Paul Revere's legacy at Bayfront rally

Left: To commemorate the 250th anniversary of Paul Revere's legendary midnight ride on April 18, 1775, local members of the American Legion and various motorcycle clubs gathered at Hilo Bayfront on Good Friday for a celebratory ride. Escorted by Hawaii County police, the procession cruised through Hilo, led by 92-year-old Terry "Pop" Bachiller — the group's oldest rider — and 12-year-old Kiki Lukzen, the youngest. The event marks the start of a 15-month series of commemorations leading up to the 250th anniversary of the United States on July 4, 2026. Each participant received an official "America 250" pin to mark the occasion. Above: Tom Wojszynski holds up two lanterns as he's joined by Julene Ignacio, left, Julie Wojszynski, and Marcia Brinkley — each dressed in colonial attire — during Friday's Paul Revere Rally at Hilo Bayfront.
